

If u take this station away from my family we wouldn't get that same uplifting music that we desire it's change not only my life as a believer but my family's life just to know that i can listen to music that doesn't include violence, sex, or drugs my kids love this station and my oldest is going on three my son 2 so please if this help me and my family out so many ways just think about how it reflects other people and maybe even more than ourselves so please think about it and thanks for your time and god bless you and your family